WAS IN A TANK

Exciting Experience of Canadian
Salvationist Behind the Enemy
Lines

"I am in England and in hospital," writes Pie A. P. Chambers. "I got wounded on Aug. 8th in the head, back and right arm, but am doing nicely now."

"It was a marvellous way in which God brought me through. A number of Canadians were attached to the Imperial Tank battalions for the big push and I happened to be one of them. I had to go as a runner for one of the Officers. He got killed at the same time I received my wounds."

"I had a great experience going about eight or nine miles behind the German lines in a tank, and believe me I many times thought of Psalmist's words, 'God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.'"

"We were almost surrounded by the enemy when our tank was put out of action by three direct hits from anti-tank shells."

"The Christian's hope and comfort is of untold value at such times as these."

A couple of miles from the hospital is a town called Maidenhead, and it has a beautiful Salvation Army Corps. I had the privilege of going to the meeting last night. It was Harvest Festival week-end and I enjoyed the service immensely as it was the first one I had had the chance of attending for over six months. There is nothing like the dear old Army for me. I was in London a few days ago and whilst visiting Headquarters had a fine talk with Brigadier Cunningham, the Editor of the "War Cry". I would love to be present at the Congress but am living in hopes of being at the next one."

FIRST AID TRAINING

In Proving of Great Value to Salvationists Comrade Over in France

"My work over here has been the leading up of the wounded, writes Bandman H. Ashby from France. "Little did I think while studying First Aid in the Toronto Training College that it would be of so much use at such a time as this."

"I have been able to speak to many of God's goodness and love, and I ever pray that I may be a blessing to all. I fully appreciate the prayers of comrades at home. We all need them. God's promises are true if we will believe, as our late General said."

"The London I Band boys are alright as far as I can find out. No doubt they are anxious to see the new Hall and to march down Duns St. again. I am looking forward to the time when I shall be wearing the blue uniform again and working for God as in days past. My spiritual experience is bright. God is real to me."

NOTICE TO READERS

The Editor will be glad to receive letters or extracts from letters from Salvation Army Workers, Officers, or Members, giving incidents of their service, or any other matter of interest. The Editor reserves the right to use any material so received in the "War Cry" or in any other publication of the Salvation Army.

MILITARY BANDSMEN

Who Are Also Salvation Army Bandmen, Are a Great Help to the Montreal I. and II. Corps—Some Thumb-nail Sketches

THE War has made a serious drain upon our Corps Bandmen everywhere and Montreal II has felt it as severely as any, for fourteen of its Bandmen are at the front. The Corps, therefore, fully appreciates the services of a number of Salvation Army Bandmen from the United States, who have enlisted amongst the boys as "Uncle John."

Bandman W. Valentine (solo euphonium)—Enlisted at Cambridge, Mass., where for four years he was a Bandman and Company Leader. His voice is a great attraction in the Open-air, where it is used in singing for God. He originally came from Aberdeen, Scotland.

with the Canadian forces and are at present playing in the Military Staff Band at Montreal waiting their turn to be sent overseas. He is a photo of these Bandmen appears on this page, and it appears that they number fourteen. Twelve of them, when off military duty, take an active part in the meetings at Montreal II, the remaining two being Bandmen of Montreal I.

"They turn out well to the Corps' weekly band practice on Saturday nights, and also to the Sunday meetings," writes Adjutant Caven-
"Their music certainly makes things move. One of the striking features about these boys is their personal testimonies and the whole-souled manner in which they work throughout the meetings. They have proved to be a great blessing and help to Point St. Charles Corps as well as the general public."

Adjutant also supplies us with the following details concerning each of the Bandmen:

Corporal J. Stender—Was a Bandman in Schenectady, N.Y., where he took an active interest in the Boys' Band. It was largely due to his untiring work behind the scenes that made it the success it had on his trip to New York. He is respected by all who know him, especially in his Company, where he is a cork.

Bandman W. Stender (solo cornet)—Was for five years a Bandman in Schenectady, N.Y., also Young People's Bandmaster. He originally came out of Portland as Deputy Bandmaster and held a special position under Bandmaster N. Burgess at Wandsworth, England. He was twenty-two unbroken years of service to his Corps. Still hard at it.

Bandman J. Trevis—Who enlisted from Boston V, was converted twenty-eight years ago in Sherborn, Ex., and as an envoy has been a faithful warrior amongst the troops with whom he has come in contact, never missing an opportunity to be sent off the Hall to give his testimony. He is known amongst the boys as "Uncle John."

Bandman W. Valentine (solo euphonium)—Enlisted at Cambridge, Mass., where for four years he was a Bandman and Company Leader. His voice is a great attraction in the Open-air, where it is used in singing for God. He originally came from Aberdeen, Scotland.

Bandman E. L. Thompson—Was for four years service, a product of Montreal I Corps Boys Band. Plays BB bass in both Salvation Army and military band.

Bandman W. Killock (no cornet)—Originally hails from Paisley, Scotland. Was for four years in Schenectady, N.Y., where for four years he was a faithful worker but amongst the Young People and the Band, having a good deal of service as a Bandman to his credit, as long as I live I mean, by God's grace, to my cornet for the Kingdom," he says.

Bandman P. Laidlaw (solo tenor)—With fifteen years' service, hails from Penicuik, Scotland, had for seven years played in Montreal Band.

Bandman E. L. Thompson—Was for four years service, a product of Montreal I Corps Boys Band. Plays BB bass in both Salvation Army and military band.

MEANS GOOD CHEER

A Soldier's Description of an Army Hut

A boy writes home from the French front: "We are exceedingly fortunate; we have a Salvation Army Hut. This means good cheer, good 'cats' a modicum of good advice, and best of all good music. Consider a wooden hut about 20 ft. by 120 ft. in size. At one end is a counter where you can buy, at one end, everything from chocolate to hymn-books, from delicious hot coffee to 'khaki blanc' for your legging, from long hair to the winner 'special'—a different day every night, which you get for about thirty centimes (six cent for your own plate). The thing makes you homesick; one day it is a custard pudding with sliced peaches, another day big fat, juicy pumpkin pie, and so on. Oh, boy! This is a platform at the other end, with a piano and several guitars lying around; an Army crest adorns the wall. In one corner of the Hut there is a quiet room, with pen, ink, and paper, inviting you to write home."

NEWSY PARS

Concerning the Lads in Khaki and Blue

Lieut.-Colonel Barker, in charge of The Army's operations in the United States troops in France, is arranging for his officers to decorate the graves of all the American soldiers who have fallen in the war. A record has been secured of the names of the places of interment. The graves will be decorated following brief services at each of the plots.

Major Gnanu Dagen (Barrett) who is in charge of one of the units of the United States troops in France, is in the ever-growing work of the Corps for the material aid and comfort of the men under his command.

Colonel Peyton, Territorial Commander of Salvation Army, visited our Huts on the Plerly front. The Colonel inspected several of the Huts and had several meetings with the boys, which excellent results were visible. Sixty men were prayed with at their own request, and many other prayers were being received. The Army, having received Salvationists

FINLAND

AWFUL NEED AND DISTRESS—THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE HELPED THROUGH THE ARMY—MEETINGS AT PRISON CAMPS

Here are some extracts from a news-letter received from Finland: "From the first days after the capital, Helsinki, had been taken by the Germans our comrades there had their hands full, being called for by the authorities to help with the prisoners and their families. Twenty Officers were at once detached for this work, and they were able to do very much service, because they were used to house-to-house visitation, and knew how to get at that class of people who had to be dealt with. The need and distress, which have been awful indeed, are still very much felt because of the very great lack of food and the very high prices of all necessities. Thousands of people have been helped through the Salvation Army."

"At different prisoner camps our comrades are allowed to conduct meetings, and talk personally with the prisoners. They also distribute 'The War Cry' amongst them and they have every reason to believe that this work will prove to be of great blessing and salvation to many souls. Two of our women Officers are at present working in one of the great infirmaries at Sveaborg, the great fort outside Helsinki, in which place are kept a number of prisoners; the leader for our 'Hear-and-Do' Work, has also been placed at Sveaborg, where she is able to be of much help as a connecting link between the prisoners and the families."

"A new Creche has been started at Alberg, and by this means a good number of mothers are able to go to work, leaving their children to our care. All the expenses are paid by friends. In our Summer Colonies we have now 250 children."

NEW ZEALAND

SOLDIERS' HOSTEL OPENED IN WELLINGTON—A TRAINING FARM FOR WAR ORPHANS

Another Hostel for Soldiers was opened recently at Wellington by His Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Buxton. The building contains 90 rooms.

A Training Farm for boys, operated through the war, is situated in absolutely virgin country—2600 acres—unimproved, save for successive fires and has been the whole of the large timber and kept the dense undergrowth of manuka, totu and taseru from becoming a forest. There was also a considerable growth of fern, eight to ten feet high in places. Other "winnings off" have taken place, the Commissioner making a tour of the burnt areas, this making satisfactory ploughing possible. Three hundred acres are already ploughed. The balance is being prepared for root-crops, turnips, etc.

Salvation Service in India

Colonel and Mrs. Hoe are Interviewed in Toronto Regarding Their Seventeen Years' Work in the Foreign Field—Returning to Take Charge of the Punjab Territory

RECENT visitors to Toronto were Colonel and Mrs. Hoe, who passed through the city on their way to India. A short sketch of their careers in The Salvation Army will doubtless prove of interest to our readers. The Colonel has seen thirty years' service as an Officer.

able to speak to the people without the aid of an interpreter.

Adjutant Hoe, as he was then, decided that a helpmate possessing such energy and ability, and with such an indomitable Salvationist spirit, would suit him all right. So shortly afterwards a wedding took place in Calcutta. It was the first Army event of such a character in that city and a crowd of over 2500 attended.

As Divisional Officer at Calcutta and then at Bombay and Madras, Adjutant Hoe did many years' good service. He and his wife longed to get amongst the village people however, thinking that they would be able to win many more souls. They were told that they would have to become District Officers under a Divisional Officer in order to do so. The reply of the Adjutant was characteristic. "Oh, I don't care what you call us," he said, "so long as we have an opportunity of getting near to the people and bringing them to the Army."

That is the spirit which, wins every time, and the Colonel and his wife look back upon the years they spent among the simple Indian villagers, living their life and sharing their joys and sorrows, as among the very happiest in their whole experience.

A Two-Roomed Hut

They lived in a little two-roomed hut in South India, with hardly any comforts and just enough food to keep them from starving. Often they would undertake long and trying journeys to reach outlying villages, and all the time they were busy teaching, preaching, settling disputes amongst the villagers, cheering the converts and training the Officers. It was a life of life and arduous labour, but they rejoiced in it for Christ's sake, and they had an abundant reward in seeing hundreds of heathen souls at the Cross and Salvation Army Halls and Schools springing up in all directions.

At Bombay Again

But the Salvation War soon demanded their services in other directions and they were recalled to Bombay, where, in addition to Divisional Work, the duties of editing the "War Cry" were thrust upon the then Staff-Captain. Promotion to the rank of Major soon followed and appointment as Chief Secretary of the South Indian Territory. Then came another promotion and an appointment as General Secretary to the late Commissioner Higgins, in which capacity Brigadier Hoe travelled all over India, spending six months when he took charge of the Gujarat Territory during a period of famine. The strain and anxiety affected his health, and for the first time since arriving in India, he was prostrated with malarial fever. At one time his life was despaired of, but God wonderfully answered the prayers of his wife and comrades and he was restored to health.

Now a Lieutenant-Colonel and a Territorial Commander, the Telugu country being his Territory. This includes Calcutta and Madras and a vast area of territory. Large numbers of converts were made during his three years' command and many material advances were made. His Chief Secretary was Brigadier Muthiah, a talented and devoted native Officer who is now a Territorial Commander. Mrs. Hoe was busy in supervising the Rescue Homes and Girls' Industrial Schools.

Twelve Years in England

Owing to a breakdown in Mrs. Hoe's health they were ordered to return to England. For twelve years the Colonel occupied various Secretarial positions in the Foreign Office. Then he became General Secretary of the International Training College, spending five happy and strenuous years in close touch with the work of training the Army's Officers.

The Colonel is now appointed to take charge of the Punjab Territory, which is a great opportunity. "We look upon it as a great opportunity," said the Colonel, "and though there was some sacrifice in leaving the Punjab, we were going to India with all our hearts. It is our desire to render the most effective service to our people. We are sure that we feel that, knowing India and its people as we do, we are specially qualified to return to that great field. We feel that the need for Officers is so urgent."

The eldest son of Colonel and Mrs. Hoe, we might add, was killed in the war, and the second son is still on active service.

COMMISSIONER SOWTON

Conducts Sunday's Meetings at Regina I.—Twelve Seekers

At Regina I. on Sunday, Sept. 22nd, Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton led a series of inspiring meetings. In the morning five came forward for reconsecration and four for Salvation.

The afternoon meeting took the form of a lecture by the Commissioner entitled "Lessons from the War." Major Cowan, M.P., took the chair, and numerous other prominent citizens were in the audience. The Commissioner's lecture proved to be very interesting and instructive, and many went home with a far greater conception of the work of The Salvation Army in France.

The Band and Songsters each rendered an item. The Commissioner, who heard the Songsters for the first time, personally congratulated Songster Leader Payne upon the splendid singing of the Brigade. After two rousing Open-air a splendid Salvation meeting was held. The Band and Songsters each rendered a selection, after which the Commissioner spoke. His talk was full of warning and appeal to the unconverted, and many hearts were touched by his words. A soul-searching time was the result and we had the joy of seeing three comrades come forward for recognition, making a total of twelve for the day. God's spirit was felt to be very near throughout the day, and the results of the day were every cause to thank God. It might be stated that the Life-Saving Scouts acted as ushers at the afternoon meeting, and that the Rev. Arthur H. Smith, Corps Correspondent.

COLONEL TURNER

Leads Harvest Festival Meetings at Saskatoon—Good Proceeds from Sale

Colonel Turner, the Chief Secretary, paid Saskatoon a visit for the Harvest Festival week-end. Interesting and blessed times were experienced. The platform was devoted a good many hours to that part of the work and it certainly reflected to his credit and taste. Commandant Holdstock had looked up the friends and got a lot of promises which he followed up by borrowing a horse and democrat and driving round the donors thus securing gifts of flowers, fruit and vegetables.

The Colonel, on Sunday morning, gave a very forceful and helpful talk on the "Burning Bush."

Major Sims of the Social Department surprised us by coming into our midst.

Quite a lively time was experienced in the afternoon, as both visitors were in a reminiscent spirit, no doubt helped by the presence of comrades who were Soldiers in their Corps twenty-three years ago.

On Monday night, after some singing and music from the Band, Brother Horn was presented with a Bible and Song Book in recognition of his services as Young People's Sergeant-Major for over three years.

Our old friend the city auctioneer, Mr. Woody, then came on the platform and, in an able manner, disposed of the gifts.

The results were most gratifying as some most animated bidding took place, and about one hundred and twenty-five dollars was raised as the proceeds—Chas. Canning.

Campaigns in the West

Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton

Visit Edmonton—A Lecture on The Salvation Army's War Work Enjoyed by Large Audience

RETURNED CHAPLAIN SPEAKS HIGHLY OF THE ARMY

THE comrades and friends of The Salvation Army were delighted with the opportunity of seeing and hearing Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton during their recent visit to the city, on Thursday, Sept. 19th. The Commissioner, who with

CAPTAIN (REV.) CONY-CHING

Colonel Turner (the Chief Secretary for the West), and Major Sims (the Social Secretary) in Edmonton for the purpose of inspecting Divisional Headquarters for the Alberta Division, and also the Men's Social in the Capital City, took the opportunity of delivering his exceedingly interesting and instructive lecture, entitled, "Some Lessons from the War."

The meeting in the No. 1 Citadel was preceded by a united Open-air meeting outside the Selkirk Hotel, led by Staff-Captain G. Smith, Chancery for Alberta. Comrades from all the city Corps joined hands for this purpose, music being rendered and later on in the Citadel, being provided by the No. 1 Band, under Commander Cotes.

In the inside meeting the Songsters, led by Captain J. Mundy, rendered a selection. The chairman was Captain (Rev.) Cony-Ching, the Military Secretary for the Y.M.

MR. A. T. FISHER, M.P., Who presided at Commissioner Sowton's Meeting at Fort St. John, B.C.

C.A. in the city, who was introduced by Brigadier Hay. He is an old and true friend of the Army, and one who has only recently returned from France, and stated how much he appreciated the privilege of attending this meeting.

Mrs. Sowton then read the Scripture lesson, after which the Commissioner delivered his lecture. Towards the end of his address he spoke of the great and valuable work being performed by the women throughout the Empire, and he concluded by reading letters from General Haig, a private soldier, Chaplain-Captain Steele (a Salvation Army Chaplain in France), and a letter from a man who was cared for in one of The Army Hospitals in London.

The Hon. Frank Oliver, Editor of the Edmonton "Bulletin," and a former M.P., moved a vote of thanks to the Commissioner for his splendid address, expressing his opinion that in the Commissioner the Army in Canada West had the right man in the right place. The vote of thanks was heartily seconded by Captain Acton, the Officer in charge of Edmonton II, who mentioned the fact that he regularly visits the Military Hospital in his district, and called on all present to do their very utmost to help the men who had offered themselves for their country. The vote of thanks was then presented to the Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton, by the Chairman, who stated that he had personal knowledge of the citizens who were related in the letter from Captain Steele read previously by the Commissioner, as he had himself accompanied the Captain and had seen him carrying out the work he described, namely supplying the men coming from the trenches with hot

Brigadier Hay then thanked the Chairman and Mr. Oliver for their presence, and after the singing of the National Anthem, and one verse of "God Save Our Sovereign and Rightful King," the Commissioner brought a very happy and profitable meeting to a close by pronouncing the Benediction—E.G.

RED SHIELD CAMPAIGN

Good Reports from Vancouver, Prominent Citizens Aid Noon-day Gatherings, Bands Parade the Streets

COMMISSIONER LAND Encourages Soldiers

We are in the midst of the Vancouver Red Shield Campaign. Reports are to hand that the canvassers are being well received, and the people are giving the appeal their practical support.

Brigadier Davidson has given his hearty support to the Campaign, and has been present at nearly all the Committee meetings, and has every day given his hearty cooperation, as have also a number of other civil officials.

The noon-day luncheons which are being held at the Manitoba Hotel each day of the Campaign are proving to be a success and a source of inspiration to the workers. Amongst those who addressed these luncheons were Sir Harry Campbell, Lieut. Colonel (Rev.) A. W. H. D.S.O., Mayor Davidson, and Mr. J. W. Boyd, Municipal Engineer of the I.O.D.E. Music has been provided at these luncheons by the different local orchestras.

Commissioner Land's words of encouragement given especially by him at the Soldiers' Meeting conducted by Commissioner Sowton previous to the luncheon of the Campaign, have been appreciated. A number of the Bands on different evenings of the week have paraded the street and also played outside the Campaign Headquarters, which has been a considerable interest.

The managers of a number of the Vancouver theatres have arranged representative speakers to present the Red Shield Campaign before their various audiences.

The Vancouver City Council addressed a meeting of the New-Kin Association in the Ladies Hall at the Industrial Bureau recently. This worthy Association were invited to a tea at the Soldiers' Home on Friday, Oct. 4th. The proceeds from both events were passed over to the Red Shield Campaign Fund.

FAREWELL AT STRATHCONA

On Aug. 28th there was a farewell tea given for two Cadets from Edmonton II Corps, or as we call it, Strathcona. May of the cadets spoke to encourage the girls. There was a large gathering of the Young People.

During the tea the farewell message, There was a large and hence, The two girls played their mandolins.

On Monday night we said farewell to the girls, who went with courage and strength to do their best to bring souls to the fold of the Cross.

These two Cadets are Doris Brown and Elizabeth Brown. They are not only missed in their own but in the Corps' work.

MORE MILITARY HOSTS

Arrangements are in hand for the opening at Strathcona of a Home for Soldiers on the model of those which are doing such excellent work in Toronto, Vancouver, and other cities.

A proposal is also before the Commissioner Richards for the establishment of a similar institution at Chatham, Ont.

THE FIELD SECRETARY

Concludes His Campaign in Newfoundland with Visits to Hearts' Delight, Catamount, Elliston and Bonaville

Our visit to Hearts' Delight was most enjoyable. The Officer had not arrived but the Teacher, Cadet Cornick, had the school in full swing, and Sergeant-Major Reid was looking after the Corps. The crowd was excellent, and the meeting one of our best. The Field Secretary gave the talk which was deeply interesting, and the singing was superb. Two souls volunteered and both got soundly converted. We had a real, old-fashioned Newfoundland jumping wind-up. It was glorious. The spirit in this Corps is beautiful indeed. The Field Secretary gave the people Commissioner Richards' greetings, which were received very warmly with handclapping.

Good Buildings.

A new Hall is in contemplation this coming Fall. The Salvation Army will then have a splendid equivalent. Our buildings, Salvation Army Citadel, School-house and Quarters—are on a very large and excellent site, but the centre of the harbour looking straight out over Trinity Bay.

Adjutant and Mrs. Downey are in charge of the work. This is one of the splendid possibilities. In this, as in nearly all Newfoundland Corps, there is a good Hall and Quarters.

The new Officers had just arrived, and have not yet gotten hold of the place, but as in almost every Corps we have visited, we saw a large and appreciative crowd. The people, we learned afterward, were especially pleased with the meeting.

We were met at Bonaville by Adjutant Earle, the District Officer, and taken in a rig to Elliston, five miles distant. The meeting here was in the Orange Hall, which was packed and people turned away. The crowd simply gave themselves to everything that was done in the meeting. The Brigadier and the writer were charmed with the spirit of the people. The Rev. Mr. Cotton, just from the trenches in France, on with us on the platform and took part in the meeting.

Sunday and Monday, Sept. 22nd and 23rd, we spent in Bonaville, the district centre.

On Sunday morning we had a crowd of about 200, in the afternoon 500, and at night the Hall was filled with 800 people, and many were turned away. The Holiness Meeting was one of blessing. The Field Secretary's lecture was splendidly received. At night the crowd was especially taken hold of and ten souls were saved. The Sunday collections amounted to $34.

Sick Comrades Visited

We visited Cadet E. Brown, who is with his parents here. He has been very ill with blood-poison, and nearly lost his hand. It is now the way to recovery. Will comrades pray for him? He is one of our leaders.

The lecture of the Brigadier on Monday night was looked forward to, and a magnificent audience of about 700 filled the place, giving us cheering as they entered the hall.

Here a very cancelling the Brigadier's engagements and calling him to Toronto on important business, necessitated his leaving the consideration of the trip, except Grand Falls, to the writer, Major J. N. Allen.

Calgary Red Shield Campaign

LEADING CITIZENS GIVE HEARTY SUPPORT—TEAMS SUPPLIED BY MANY ORGANIZATIONS—A SUCCESSFUL TAG DAY

OVER TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS REALIZED

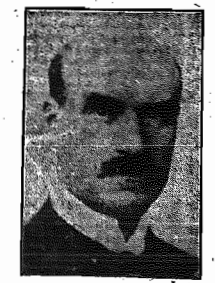

The first Red Shield Drive to be promoted in Western Canada was that carried on in the city of Calgary. The objective for the same was $25,000, made up as follows:—

Soldiers' Home. $10,000
Rotary Club. 10,000
Other citizens who were equally interested and exceedingly generous in their assistance.

The Campaign was carried on under difficulties in some respects, owing to the close proximity of the Incidentals, including annual fall appeal, pressing liabilities on the Local Rescue Home, expense of campaign, etc., $5000.

The Campaign was conducted by a committee of business men of Calgary, the Executive of which was as follows:—

Honorary Chairman: P. L. Naimith, Esq., Manager of Department of Natural Resources of the C.P.R.; R. J. Lydiatt, Esq., ex-President of the Calgary Rotary Club; C. G. K. Nourse, Esq., Manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and F. L. Richardson, Esq., Secretary of the Calgary Exhibition Board. These gentlemen are all well known and favourably regarded by the citizens of Calgary.

They were assisted by a large number of other leading citizens, including men prominent in all walks of life. Amongst the number being C. F. McEwen, Esq., Manager of the Great West Life Co., Campbell, Secretary of the Board of Trade; Ald. R. C. Marshall, President of the Y.M.C.A.; L. Cavanaugh, President of the Rotary Club, and a host of other citizens who were equally interested and exceedingly generous in their assistance.

The Campaign was carried on under difficulties in some respects, owing to the close proximity of the Parades were carried out each of the three days of the Campaign. The local Corps Band, the procession the first day, the Depot Battalion Band the second, and the Depot Band the third.

In addition to those already mentioned, others taking particular part in the campaign were Mr. Thomas D. Spence, prominent in I.O.D.E. circles throughout Canada, had charge of the effort and through the splendid organization brought about under his direction, the result was over Fourteen Hundred Dollars, the largest amount raised through an effort of this kind in Calgary for several months.

The Salvation Army team, working under the direction of Adjutant James Merritt, certainly did a splendid job, and it is said that never in campaign history in Calgary has there been an appeal that has received such general approval as that of the Red Shield Campaign.

The result is not entirely without yet at the time of writing, but it is confidently expected that ere this campaign is over the Calgary Red Shield Drive will be well over the Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars—G.W. Peacock.

other points in the Southern part of Alberta were canvassed, including the city of Lethbridge. At the latter place the effort was carried out in the nature of a whirlwind campaign, when in one day over Three Thousand Dollars were raised. The Lethbridge campaign was entirely in the hands of the Rotary Club, under the direction of President White. Three prominent members of the Rotary Club in the persons of Messrs. McKay, Dixon and Green, were appointed a special committee by President White, and took the responsibility of the effort. Many leading business men co-operated with this Rotary Club and assisted with the canvass.

The Commissioner visited Calgary, accompanied by Mrs. Sowton, during the campaign and spoke in the Central Methodist Church on Sunday morning, and Wesley Methodist Church in the evening; his addresses being on the Red Shield Drive exclusively. In the afternoon a largely attended Mass meeting was held in the No. 1 Citadel Sunday afternoon. The Honorary Chairman, P. L. Naimith, Esq., presided, and was supported by members of the executive and other leading citizens. This gave the campaign considerable publicity. The street cars carried "ads" free, while all the leading advertisers devoted portions of their space to a reference to the appeal. Special speakers were in many of the factories, schools, etc., and Mrs. Brigadier Potter addressed large audiences in all the leading theatres during the campaign. The theatres also carried slides of the Army's War Work, and in fact, in many other ways the campaign was well advertised.

The whole effort was brought to a close with a big Tag Day. This was held on the 23rd of September, and was a very successful one.

The result is not entirely without yet at the time of writing, but it is confidently expected that ere this campaign is over the Calgary Red Shield Drive will be well over the Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars—G.W. Peacock.

The result is not entirely without yet at the time of writing, but it is confidently expected that ere this campaign is over the Calgary Red Shield Drive will be well over the Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars—G.W. Peacock.

OLD SONG EXCHANGE

Corps Cadet Weeks (Humboldt, Sask.) asks for the words of a song, part of which is:—

"The Army Band was playing
On the street one winter's night;
The soldiers were all singing,
With their faces all so bright."

Mrs. Captain A. G. Ashby (Sarnia) would like to get the words of the song commencing:—

"A Hand, all torn and bleeding,
Is knocking at the door."

A NEW SOLO

Tune—"Over There."
Put your armour on, in the light, for the Stand your ground and fight, in the light,
Christ hath suffered on the tree, so the
Never go astray, mind you don't lose
Don't forget to pray, that you may win
Then when fighting days are o'er, you can rest in peace for ever more.

CHORUS

Over there, over there,
All the ransomed we'll see over there;
When our loved ones meet us, with joy,
They'll greet us,
And sing God's praises everywhere.
Over there, over there,
What a sight it will be over there;
We are going, with hearts all glowing;
And we won't come back, for it's peaceful over there.

See the codices wrong, going wrong,
Reach them with your song, with your song, with your song;
Death will be their solemn doom, if they don't accept Christ's offer soon.
Spread the news around, you were bound,
but were found;
Tell them you are bound, you are bound,
you are bound—
For the land of pure delight, where the salute of God are robed in white.
—Composed by Private P. S. Stalciffe,
Calgary.

BROCKVILLE

On Wednesday, Oct. 2nd, we said
farewell to Candidate McCracken.
We had a profitable meeting. One man stood up and acknowledged he was a sinner and then knelt at the penitent form. He was followed by four backsliders, the last one being led forward by the Candidate. We finished up around 11 pm, with a march round the Hall.

SONGS OF SALVATION

HASTEN FOR PARDON

Tunes—Aah Grove, 100; Oh, turn ye, 179.
Hark, sinner! while God from on high doth entreat thee,
And warnings with accents of mercy do blend:
Give ear to His voice, lest in judgment He meet thee,
The harvest is passing, the summer
will end.

How oft of thy danger and guilt
He hath told thee!
How oft still the message of mercy doth send!
Haste, haste, while He waits in His arms to enfold thee,
The harvest is passing, the summer
will end.

The Saviour will call thee in judgment before Him;
Oh, let all thy sins go, and make
Him thy friend!
Now yield Him thy heart, and make haste to adore Him;
The harvest is passing, the summer
will end!

CLINGING TO THE CROSS

Tunes—1 am clinging to the cross, 27;
Mary, 48.
Plunged in a Gulf of dark despair
We, wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimmering day.

CHORUS

I am clinging to the cross.

With plying eyes, the Prince of Peace
Behold our helpless grief;
He saw, and—oh, amazing love!
He flew to our relief.

EVERFLOWING LOVE

Tune—More to follow, H. M., Vol. 1, 64.
Have you on the Lord believed?
Still there's more to follow;
Oh, His grace have you received?
Still there's more to follow.
Oh, the grace the Father shows!
Still there's more to follow;
Freely He His grace bestows,
Still there's more to follow.

CHORUS

More and more, more and more,
Always more to follow;
Oh, His matchless, boundless love!
Still there's more to follow.

Have you felt the Saviour near?
Does His blessed presence cheer?
Oh, the love that Jesus shows!
Freely He His love bestows.

Have you felt the Spirit's power,
Falling like the gentle shower?
Oh, the power the Spirit shows!
Freely He His power bestows.

THE PRAISES OF GOD

Tunes—Mary, 48; Nativity, 61.
Oh, for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise:
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace!

My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim, [abroad
To spread through all the earth
The honours of Thy name.

See, all your sins on Jesus laid;
The Lamb of God was slain,
His soul was once an offering made
For every soul of man.

HALIFAX MEN'S SOCIAL

Work is Prospering—Meetings Held in Two Jails on 8 Jails—Salvage Department 4 Jails in Poor Families

Our side of the work here in Halifax is now in a prosperous and healthy condition. The work has been enlarged and broadened on three distinct lines. In the first place the Hotel accommodation has been improved. Then fresh interest has been created in the Prison Gate work. Meetings are now held in the two jails every Sunday afternoon. A practical work is being done, the men are earnestly dealt with about the better things of life. Just lately one man has taken his stand for Christ as an outcome of the meetings held. The prison officials testify that the man is doing well.

Then again the salvage work is in full operation and has become a boon to many poor families in the City of Halifax.

The work is under the direction of Ensign J. Ritchie, assisted by Captain Jones—Interested.

NEW HALL OPENED

Adjutant Best Conducts Work at Meetings at St. Stephen's—Nine Sockers

The St. Stephen Corps is progressing under the leadership of Adjutant Best and Mr. Robinson. On Sept. 22nd we had a visit from Adjutant Best. He came down for the week-end and opened our new hall. On Saturday night we had the joy of seeing three souls kneeling at the Mercy Seat. We started Sunday morning with Kneel Down till past seven. We had our Discipleship Class at quarter past ten, followed by a Holiness Meeting conducted by the Adjutant. On Sunday night we had a wonderful time. Much conviction was felt and six souls knelt at the Mercy Seat.

On Monday night we had our Harvest Festival Sale. We have smashed our target. On the following Sunday night we had a farewell meeting. Sister Robinson, who has been with us since August, has gone to her home in Belleville. We miss her very much, she has been a great help to us in both Junior and Senior work. Our Junior work is also progressing.—H. A. Williams.

FOR OUR BOYS IN FRANCE

We would remind our readers that Captain Steele (our Chaplain at the front in France) is in urgent need of comfort for the Canadian soldiers among whom he works. Woolen socks and shirts are particularly needed.

Send all articles to Mrs. Commissioner Richards, Territorial Headquarters, Albert Street, Toronto, and they will be forwarded to the front.
